Ethics Nite 2018 : Protecting Your Professional Reputation – Minimizing the Risk of Professional Challenge

In an increasingly demanding professional environment, how can we help to reduce the risk of complaints, claims and Dental Council investigation, and help build our own reputation and that of the practice?

In describing real dento-legal case examples, delegates will be able to identify common themes arising and learn behaviours and actions which will help build and protect a professional reputation, particularly how to minimise the escalation of a case when things do not go to plan despite best intentions. We are all human, and mistakes will happen – how can we influence how the patient will react?

Dr Foster will use Dental Protections vast cases experience to bring this presentation to life and to help colleagues help themselves.
