FutureMed 2017 - International Medicine and Technology Conference

FutureMed 2017 is a spin-off from Singapore Medical Association's 47th Annual Medical Convention. The theme focuses on current developments in healthcare technology and the future impact of trends such as harnessing of Big Data.

FutureMed 2017 will be a global medical conference and expo offering a comprehensive and integrated platform to meet the professional needs of healthcare providers and industry players. FutureMed will be a platform to allow current developments in healthcare technology such as Healthcare Wearables to be showcased, and the impact of future trends such as Big Data to be explored and discussed. In line with our role in patient advocacy, we will also have a segment for the public to participate and we will have a programme focused on healthcare literacy.

It will also feature talks that engage the public in a bid to improve medical literacy and encourage patients to take more ownership of their healthcare.

Tired of Fidgety and Anxious Kids on Your Dental Chair?

- Feeling frustrated with demanding and overly protective parents?
- Feeling perplexed when faced with pulpotomy vs pulpectomy of a primary molar?
- Spending more time choosing the size of a stainless steel crown than a permanent crown prep?

Fret no more!

Let us take care of your fearful, your crying, huddled toddlers yearning to be caries controlled. The screaming kids of your otherwise peaceful clinic....

Arrange a consultation for us to see your challenging paediatric patients so you can make more efficient use of your precious clinical time.
