Rationale for the use of composite resins in direct posterior restorations

DentalTech Asia Pte Ltd is delighted to share with our valued customers that we have been appointed as the exclusive distributor of VOCO GmbH (Germany) restorative material products in Singapore. VOCO has already introduced to the dental market a whole host of product innovations which have set new standards in quality. Often, they are far more than mere consumables – they have, in fact, become problem solvers. The new agreement further extends the company’s range of solutions for the restorative and aesthetic dentistry daily routine.

Composites have evolved over the years to a truly universal restorative material. VOCO GmbH together with DentalTech Academy are honoured to invite Prof. Alejandro Bertoldi Hepburn to present a lecture on the “Rationale for the use of composite resins in direct posterior restorations” on 11th July 2018, 2pm to 6.30pm at the Shangri La Hotel, Azlier Room. This is followed by a wine and dine evening event. The lecture fee is S$80.00 with 4 CDE points. VOCO will be launching its new Admira Fusion.

Digital Workflow in Implant Dentistry Is it the time of Evolution or Revolution?

The digital workflow in implant dentistry is not only currently undergoing significant improvement in the connectivity between clinical phases (from data acquisition & diagnostics to reconstructive rehabilitation), but also in the compatibility between industrial players. These changes have the potential to lead to more predictability and cost efficient treatment processes.

This lecture will discuss the modern treatment approach through digital workflows for implant rehabilitation in the esthetic zone as well as the posterior area.
